

Shai Franklin

Veteran Jewish community executive in the United States and internationally, advocacy trainer, frequent lecturer and commentator on TV and radio, online, and in print.

Shai Franklin is a Partner and Director of National Government Relations with Gotham Government Relations, a versatile firm with strong ties to business and government leaders in New York, Washington, and globally. He serves as Chairman of the Executive Committee for the Kosovo-Israel Chamber of Commerce, and Adjunct Professor in Long Island University's Hutton House Lectures.

Previously, Shai was instrumental in forging the 2004 Berlin Declaration by 57 governments across Europe and North America to combat anti-Semitism, organizing the April 2002 National Israel Solidarity Rally, establishing systematic Jewish participation in the Organization of American States (OAS), securing tens of millions of dollars in new reimbursements for New York Jewish day schools, admitting Israel's Magen David Adom into the International Red Cross, coordinating the first distribution of U.S. Government food assistance in post-Soviet Russia, and upholding Interpol "Red Notices" against the Iranian perpetrators of the 1994 AMIA bombing in Buenos Aires.

Shai is former Executive Director of the World Jewish Congress, where he also served as Treasurer of the Conference of Non-Governmental Organizations in Consultative Status with the UN. He has worked with the American Council for World Jewry, Anti-Defamation League, and NCSEJ (formerly National Conference on Soviet Jewry). He has been a resident Fellow with The Washington Institute for Near East Policy, Jerusalem Center for Public Affairs, UN Watch and American Jewish Joint Distribution Committee, and was a Wexner Graduate Fellow at UCLA. His clients have included American Jewish Committee, American Jewish Congress, Institute for Gulf Affairs, Israel Policy Forum, Libya's Government of National Accord and the Libyan Investment Authority, Republika Srpska, Ruderman Family Foundation, Ukrainian Jewish Committee, and Ukraine's Ministry of Education and Kharkiv Regional State Administration.

Shai has testified in the U.S. Congress and addressed numerous international fora of the UN, Organization for Security and Cooperation in Europe and the Inter-parliamentary Conference on Human Rights and Religious Freedom, and was a plenary speaker at the International Economic Forum in Kharkiv, Ukraine. Under the auspices of the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs, he has conducted research in France on Islamic-Jewish relations. In response to Shai's advocacy for Ukraine, in 2022 the Russian Foreign Ministry officially banned him from entering Russia.

Shai has appeared as an expert on TV networks as diverse as Al Jazeera, Shalom TV, i24, Turkey's TRT World, and Argentina's C5N. He is a frequent contributor to The Hill, Jerusalem Post and Times of Israel, among other outlets.

Shai earned a B.A. in political science (summa cum laude) from Temple University, where he was elected to Phi Beta Kappa. He holds an M.A. from the Johns Hopkins University's Nitze School of Advanced International Studies, where he was selected for the U.S. Government's elite Presidential Management Intern Program. As a student activist, Shai was founding editor of Brown Middle East Journal, and the key organizer for AIPAC and Soviet Jewry advocacy on the campuses of Rhode Island School of Design, Brown University, and Temple.

Now based in New York, Shai has traveled widely across Eastern and Western Europe, the former Soviet Union, Latin America, the Middle East and South Asia.

TOPICS

- The fight against anti-Semitism, what it means and why
- Arab-Israeli peace prospects
- United Nations: Distinguishing friends from foes
- Combating terrorism at home and abroad
- Israel: Politics and society
- Interfaith dialogue and realities
- Europe today and tomorrow: EU, Russia, Turkey, Ukraine, and us
- The future for Jews in Europe and the former Soviet Union
- The Jewish continuity trap: quantity vs. quality
- The Jewish day school tuition crisis – what will it take?
- Integrating social and digital media into your communal agenda
- The origins and value of the “organized Jewish community”
- Balancing ‘propaganda response’ with intellectual inquiry on the college campus
- Recruiting and activating a new generation of Jewish leaders – and followers

SELECTED VIDEO CLIPS: Available on YouTube Channel

SELECTED OP-EDS

Are you racist, or just anti-anti-racist? – Times of Israel, October 2021

Are we willing for the lessons of the Holocaust to be universal? – Times of Israel, March 2021

Under Biden, the real fight against antisemitism can resume – Jerusalem Post, December 2020

A better way for Gulf States to engage Americans and American Jews – TRT World, October 2018

Surviving the ‘Holocaust Law’ controversy – Jerusalem Post, August 2018

Need a scapegoat? Just blame ‘the UN’ – Jerusalem Post, June 2017

Clarifying an American Jewish Agenda – Jerusalem Post, February 2017

Why I Attended the Jewish-Azerbaijan Event in Trump’s DC Hotel – Times of Israel, December 2016

Let ADL Condemn Bannon, Let JFNA Feed the Hungry – Jerusalem Post, November 2016

In Ukraine, U.S. Is Forfeiting New Cold War – World Post, March 2015

Obama Should Send High-Level Rep to AIPAC Conference – Ha’aretz, February 2015

The Real Risk of ‘Another 20 Gazas’ – Huffington Post, September 2014

Time for Candid, Meaningful Interfaith Talks – Huffington Post, April 2014

David Brooks Only Wrote About the Orthodox 1% – Forward, March 2013

Jews Lose By Ceding Israel to GOP – Huffington Post, March 2013

ADL must reassess opposition to gov’t support for parochial schools – JTA, August 2012

Letter from Bahrain: A Jew at the Arab table – JTA, December 2010